German House Reception.

The members of the fifth and sixth sections of the Ladies' Society of the German House gave a brilliant autumn reception and musicale yesterday afternoon in the assembly hall. The hostesses were Mrs. J. W. Schmidt and Mrs. Louis Seiklen, of the fifth, and Mrs. John Wocher and Mrs. Hauss, of the sixth sections, and they were assisted by the president of the society, Mrs. Clemens Vonnegut, Jr. The decorations for the foyer, stairway and hall were elaborate and were all of autumn flowers, leaves and asparagus. There were mounds of the latter, with scarlet berries and jars of goldenrod in the foyer, and the stair railing was almost hidden with the green. The balcony in the assembly hall was bordered with asparagus and branches of gay-colored autumn leaves. The stage was set with an autumn wood scene and held tables with palm trees. The main floor was decorated with the serving of refreshments, and they were dressed in the brightest colors. Scarlet sage in vases and knots and bows of red carnations and ferns adorned one table, and two tables were decorated with pink carnations and ferns. The tables also held lace and embroidered covers, the covers were lighted by candles in pretty holders. The different sections of the society alternated in presiding at the tables and entertaining the guests and the young ladies served. On the east side of the hall were numerous small tables seating four, decorated with autumn flowers, and here the guests were served or sat and listened to the music. The programme was in charge of Mrs. Bernard Vonnegut, Mrs. Kate Collins and Miss Amelia Kopp, a baritone solo, included a piano solo by Miss Edna Kuhn, a flute solo by Mrs. Beno Gundelinger, a vocal solo by Mrs. Ernestine, a baritone solo by Mr. Ernestine, a bass solo by Mr. O. W. Isensee and a quartet number. Each member had the privilege of inviting one guest.

W. A. R. W. P. C. A.

The meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Railway Postal Clerks' Association was held Monday evening at the residence of Mrs. C. S. Dargitz, on Central avenue. Over sixty persons were present. Recitations were given by Miss Edith Votair, Earl Steele, piano solo by Helen Votair, Miss Cody and Miss Clara Peckman, a duet by Miss Clara and Master Edwin Peckman, and solo by Miss Clara Peckman. After refreshments had been served a "cake walk" was given by several guests. All railroad clerks and their wives are invited to attend these bimonthly entertainments. The next will be given the first Monday in December.

Dressmaking

Miss Overholser and Miss Hansen have just returned from New York, bringing with them the very late ideas in costumes, gowns and evening toilets from the fashion centers of the world. Our high class ladies' tailoring department is turning out gowns with the indescribable air of exclusiveness so greatly wished for, while the popular price room for ladies' tailoring is proving an enormous success. Perfect fit, finish and style, at about half the prices you usually pay.

Rare Autumn Carpets, Curtains, Rugs and Draperies

The entire third floor given over to this mighty sale of house needs—an occasion that the economically inclined cannot afford to pass by. These prices are simply unmatchable by smaller dealers. Try them.

Curtain Bargains

Though our third floor stock of Lace Curtains was already large and complete we were tempted by most unusual price reductions made by an overloaded manufacturer into buying a large consignment of curtains about 3,000 pairs in Swiss, Nottingham, Brussels, Irish point and renaissance. We put them on sale Monday at prices below manufacturer's cost.

Lace striped scrim Curtains, with deep ruffled edge, full width and length, worth $1.25. Monday.....

Fancy colored imported Swiss Curtains, in pretty new designs and bright colors, with deep fluted ruffles, full colors, regular $2.50 value. Monday, pair.....

Fine quality Scotch Lace Curtains, in handsome new styles, lace dainty patterns in brass effects or heavy gimpure patterns, 3 1/2 yards long, 54 to 60 inches wide, overlocked edge, really worth $3. Special for Monday.....

Genuine Irish point Curtains, full width and length, made on heavy bobbin, worth $4; special price, pair.....

Real Irish points, Brussels and Swiss tambour, cost $5.50 to import, all new designs, full width and length; special price, pair.....

Tapstry Portieres in assorted colors, perfectly reversible, good quality, fringed top and bottom, worth $2.75, special price.....

1,000 Bass Extension Rugs, extend to 44 in., price, pair.....

500 Opague Cloth Window Shades, mounted with brackets, each.....

36x54 in., each.....

New Arrivals Supremacy in Fall Dress Goods

The handsomest as well as the largest dress goods collection ever gathered for this market. No more of the hum-drum sameness, but a perfect wealth of the new things, the best of the world's weaves and colorings in plain effects for natty tailored suits in exquisite novelties that are as conservative as the most modest in number. A showing of reversible gold plaids, astounding in its wide variety. See the Wasson Dress Goods Section to-morrow—greater than ever.

THESE SPECIAL VALUES FOR THE WEEK.
